

Overview: Data Submission Process

Procedure-Driven Registry

The COAP database is procedure-driven, and will contain one record for each CABG or PCI procedure performed. In the example below, patient John Smith will have two separate data sets submitted to the registry if he undergoes both a PCI and CABG, whether he transfers to a different hospital or has both procedures at the same hospital.

